

Nevada Operations Overview

Published: September 2014

In 2013 Newmont mined 2.7 million ounces and produced 1.8 million ounces (mined low grade ores that were stockpiled) from 9 open pits, 7 underground mines and 13 processing facilities across northern Nevada. The Nevada Operations accounts for 36% of Newmont's production worldwide.

Newmont owns or controls approximately 2.7 million acres in Nevada. Approximately 56,500 acres are used for mining and mine production, portions of which are reclaimed, undergoing reclamation or are undisturbed.

Newmont employs over 3400 industry professionals across Nevada in mining disciplines ranging from truck drivers and mechanics to engineers and geologists, as well as business professionals from accounting to IT employees.

The average annual salary for Newmont Nevada employees is approximately $86,000; benefits in addition to salary include health insurance, paid time off, wellness program, annual bonuses, and access to a private medical clinic.

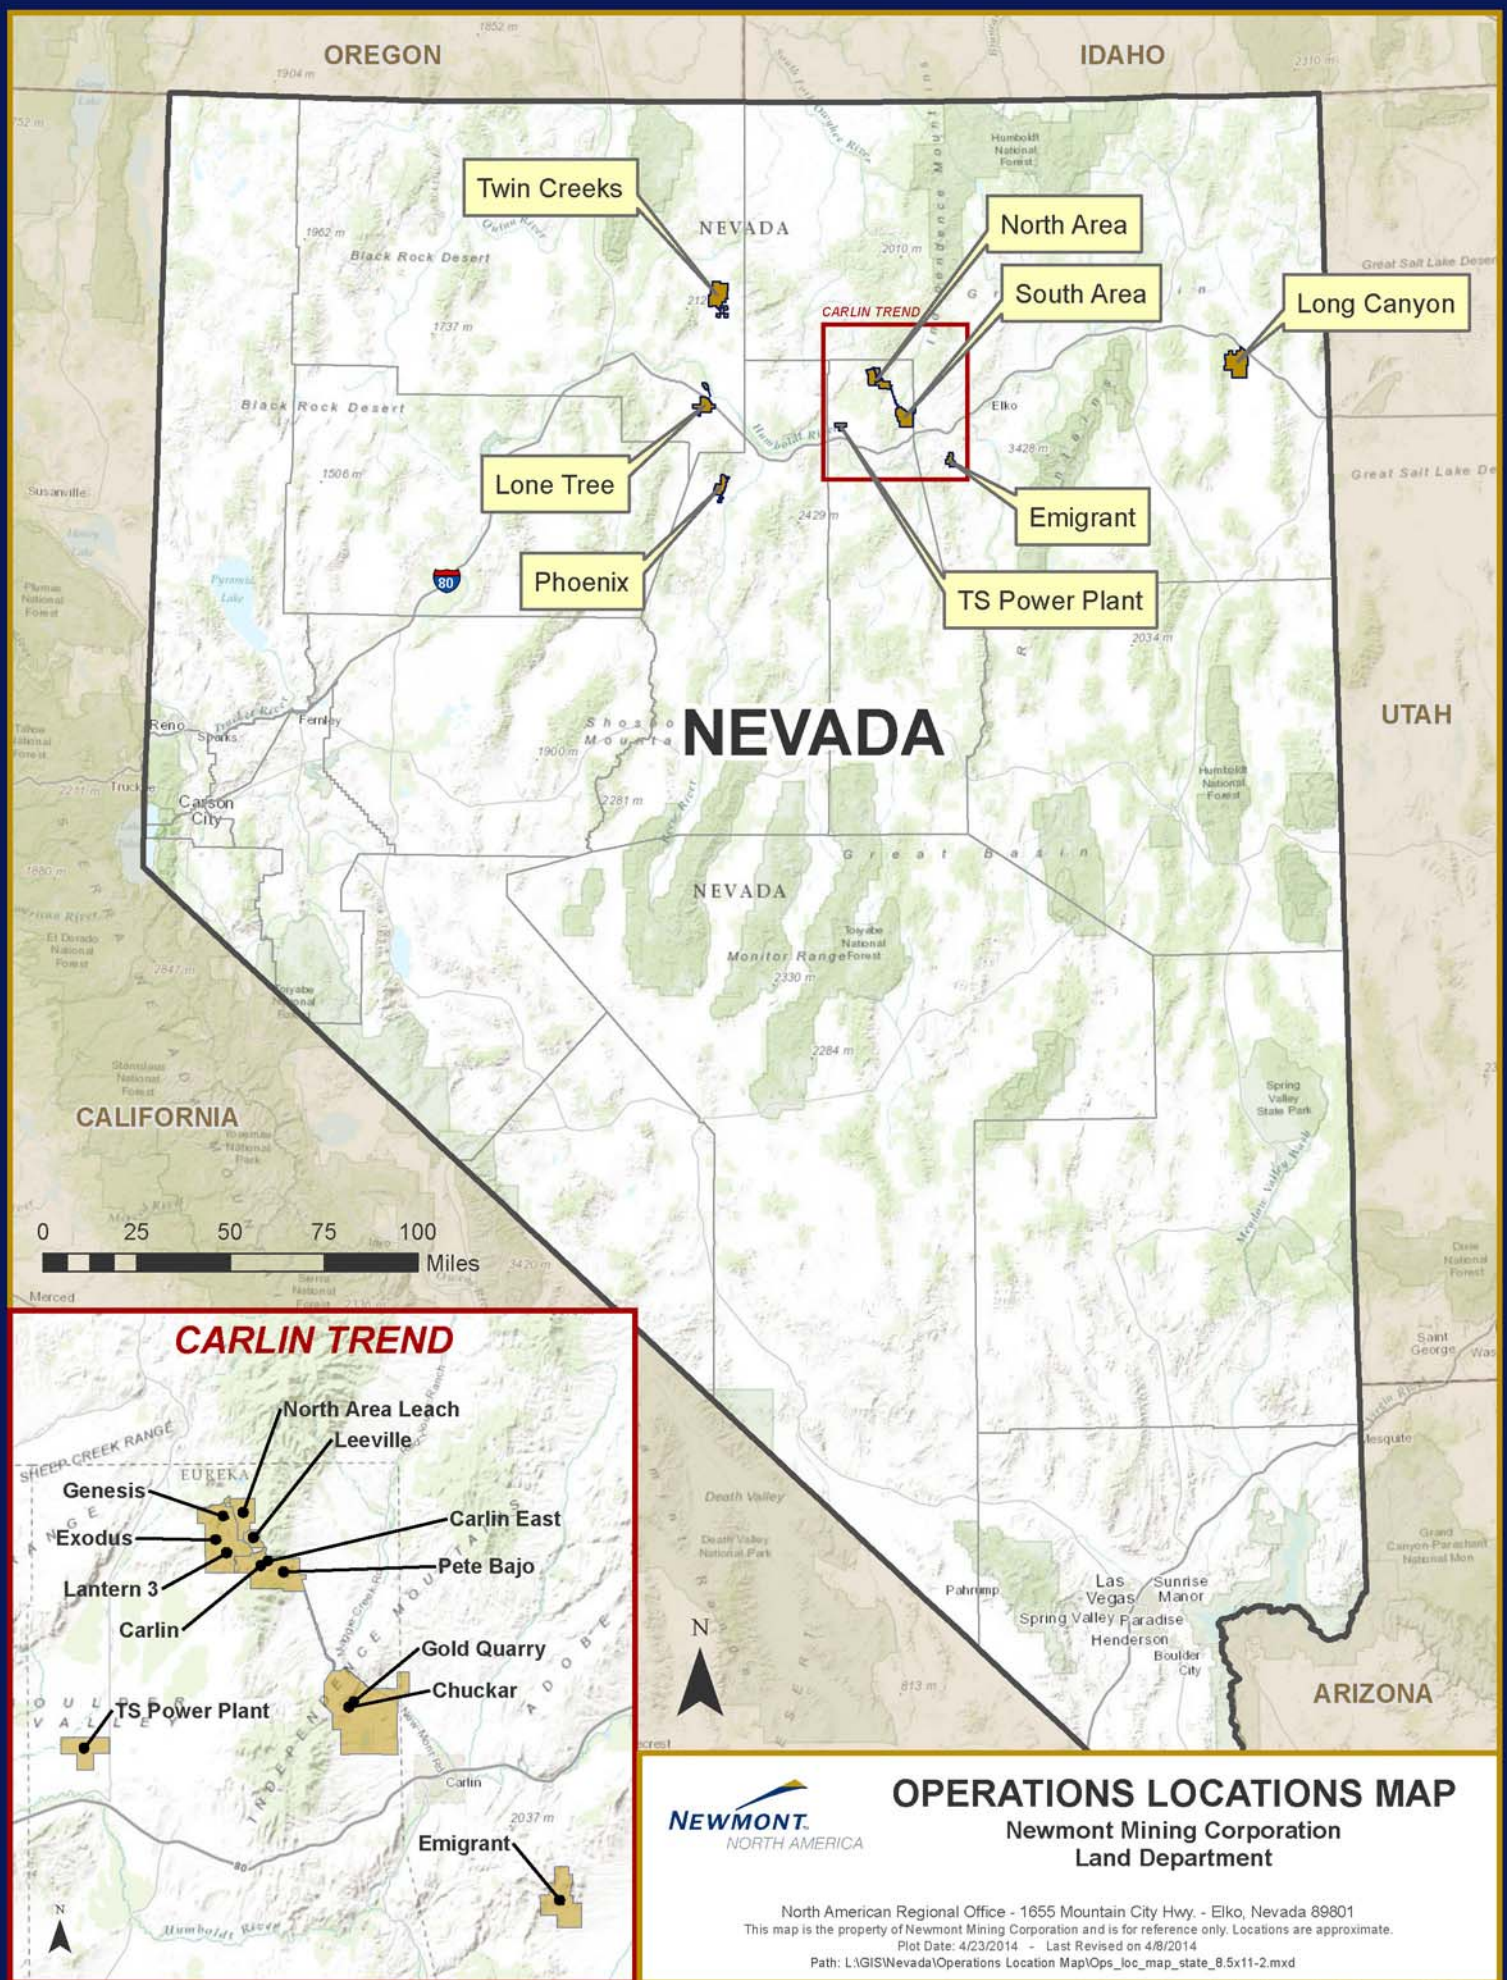

Newmont practices concurrent reclamation of mining disturbances as soon as practical and for its efforts has received numerous awards from State and federal Agencies. All reclamation of mined lands is backed by financial assurances. Currently, in excess of $1.2 billion is held in reclamation financial guarantees (corporate guarantees, letters of credit, and survey bonds) for Newmont's Nevada mine sites.

Newmont Nevada employee voluntary contributions to the Newmont Legacy Fund campaign in 2013 were $1.08 million, an amount matched by the company bringing the total amount donated to $2.16 million, for non-profit organizations in northern Nevada.

In 2013 the Newmont Legacy fund provided over 52,000 meals and numerous hours mentoring school aged children. The Legacy Fund also provided over 260,000 meals to seniors and community members. Newmont Legacy Fund also provided assistance and 15,600 nights of safety to more than 700 victims and 600 children impacted by domestic violence.

In 2013 Newmont donated approximately $2,300,000 in Nevada to the following areas: youth and education, arts, music, culture, underserved populations, environmental, health & welfare and civic enhancement.
